

HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES (2019-20)

Orientation Training Programme for Newly Recruited Scientists of KVKs under ICAR-ATARI, Zone XI was organized at KVK Mysuru during 16-20 September 2019. In this programme, 33 Subject Matter Specialists from Karnataka and Kerala have participated. Similarly, another Orientation Training Programme for Newly Recruited Scientists of KVKs under ICAR-ATARI, Zone XI was organized at KVK Kasaragod during 23-27 September 2019. In this programme, 30 Subject Matter Specialists from Karnataka and Kerala have participated. The officials of ATARI, Zone XI and eminent Scientist were invited as resource persons to orient the newly recruited scientists. An overview of KVK system in India, Participatory Aural Appraisal, Technology testing, assessment, and Frontline demonstration, capacity building of farmers, rural youth, women and extension functionaries, working with farmers organizations and technology providers, biodiversity protection, preparing research & development projects, Knowledge sharing in digital era, organizing mandated activities, administrative and financial matters were covered during the training programme.

Director and Scientists, ICAR-ATARI, Zone XI, Bengaluru along with the participants of Orientation Training Programme held at KVK Mysuru

Participants of Orientation Training Programme involved in PRA exercise in a Village at Mysuru